

What is a sustaining membership?

ADC's sustaining membership is a level of support and engagement especially for the Association's public sector members. This is an optional, exclusive level of membership that includes special benefits. Building off the successful partnerships ADC has developed with private sector companies through its sponsorship program, the sustaining membership category will provide a similar opportunity for public sector members interested in further leveraging their involvement in ADC.

Who is eligible?

Community, regional, and state members of ADC who are looking to distinguish themselves as one of America's leading defense communities. This includes Local Redevelopment Authorities (LRAs), active base community organizations and state organizations.

Why should you become a sustaining member?

- Exclusive partnership level for public sector members
- Special discounts and complimentary invitations worth thousands of dollars
- Opportunity to play a leadership role in the Association
- Demonstration of your commitment to ADC and advancing its mission
- Increased exposure for your community, state or region
- Opportunities to network with key decision makers from Congress and DoD

How do I sign up?

Complete the sustaining membership form and submit it to ADC. Please contact Tim Ford at tford@defensecommunities.org or (202) 822-5256 if you have questions.

What is the cost?

$1,500 per year. Payment can be made quarterly or in semi-annual installments. Sustaining members are also eligible to purchase up to (4) ADC Event Passes for $400 each.* These passes are good for one registration at any of ADC's major events – Installation Innovation, National Summit, or Base Redevelopment Forum. This is an average of a $200 savings for each event.

What are the benefits?

- Two invitations to the ADC Leadership Reception with DoD and Congressional officials at the Defense Communities National Summit
- Two tickets to the Congressional Breakfast during the National Summit
- Six week ad/logo placement in Defense Communities 360 (a $500 value)
- Featured article in Defense Communities 360
- Opportunity to purchase up to (4) heavily discounted event passes good for any major ADC conference (an $800 value)*
- One complimentary invite to 360 Live Webcasts and Defense Policy Forums (a $350 value)
- Invitation to special Sustaining Member Forum with ADC leadership
- Recognition at ADC events, in the Annual Report, and on the website
- Priority opportunity to play lead roles at DoD/ Congressional briefings, conference sessions and in Journal of Defense Communities

* Optional passes can only be purchased when signing up for membership or renewing the membership. Passes must be used within the membership year; passes will not roll over to the next membership year.
